INVESTMENT FUNDS

'Investment funds work informs much of boutique independent law firm Chevalier & Sciales' deal flow and it is this determined focus on work in the sector which ensures that clients receive 'very client focused and pragmatic' advice to fund managers on their fund structuring, regulatory and operational requirements. Although it also handles work in the retail space, the firm has gained most traction within the alternatives space, including on debt, private equity and hedge funds.'

Testimonial: 'The practice is very client focused and pragmatic. But most importantly, the partners have an extensive knowledge in their respective fields.'

'Well-positioned to handle alternative funds, whether first-time managers or historical players, the firm advises on time-to-market vehicles with a high demand for RAIFs and SCSps. Concerning asset classes, Chevalier & Sciales practice covers a diversity of assets, such as PE and real estate and is increasingly active in relation to crypto, hedge and debt funds.'

LITIGATION, ARBITRATION & DISPUTE RESOLUTION

'The boutique combines creative strategies with a practical, business-centric approach, whether managing high-stakes disputes for private entities and financial institutions, advising on contentious matters or in alternative dispute resolutions. They successfully represented a financial institution in the enforcement of a €500 million arbitral award against a European State in the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg.'

'Headed by Rémi Chevalier, the arbitration department recently handled the defense of claimants in an investment arbitration regarding the application of the $1 billion bilateral investment treaty between Switzerland and the Czech Republic. Chevalier has been appointed counsel before the European Courts of Human Rights.'

cryptocurrencies as underlying assets.

Litigation, arbitration and dispute resolution

- Representation of institutional, hedge fund and high net worth investors in Madoff-related fraud litigation.
- Litigation regarding compensation for substantial financial market losses, principally resulting from investment in uncovered options and extensive use of Lombard credits.
- Enforcing a €500 Million Commercial Award: Our team effectively represented and assisted a creditor in enforcing a €500 million commercial award within Luxembourg, leveraging the provisions of the New York Convention of June 10, 1958 on the recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitration awards. We achieved favorable outcomes at both the Court of Appeal (decision 55/17-VIII-exequatur) and the Supreme Court (Cour de Cassation 70/2018). The judgments for these decisions are publicly accessible online, underscoring our capability to handle high-stakes cases.
- Appointment as counsel before the European Court of Human Rights in proceedings against an EU member state.
- We were involved in a highly intricate US$1 billion investment treaty claim against a European country. The case centered around the challenges encountered by a creditor in enforcing a commercial arbitration award across multiple jurisdictions, including England, Austria, and the Netherlands. Despite these difficulties, we successfully secured enforcement in Luxembourg and Belgium.
